

Questions regarding the Green IT

Md Iftekharul Islam

Question#1: Why does the green IT necessary for the sustainability of our environment?

Explanation: To answer the question, an individual needs to know about the green IT and the related information which affects the environment and the benefit of studying green IT. The broad aspect of sustainability issue for our environment needs to be discussed as well.

Question#2: Do you think that we should be very aware about our environment or it is exaggerated by some people? If yes then why?

Explanation: To answer the question, one has to think logically about the issues related environment protection and need to explain the bad effects of human activities and also need to analyze the current situation of our surroundings.

Question#3: The activities should be taken by our governments as well by the individual to make a better future by maintaining a sustainable environment?

Explanation: This question is very important due to make awareness in terms of government and personal. We are leading our lives sometimes without concerning the negative effects of environment by our activities and also government has a vital role to make it successful by providing information, imposing rules and regulations and taking long term plan to save our environment.

Question#4: How can the Green IT be used in effective way to envisioning a sustainable world?

Explanation: The main fact here is that why it is necessary to study the Green IT and work on it in an expanded way. There are lots of implications by using IT to make the way ease becoming a sustainable world. People can think more about it and creating more opportunities to use IT and it can help to become sustainable.